A SAD MISTAKE.

Coroner Ellinger held an inquest yesterday morning in the case of Edna Elastein, seventeen months old. She was taken with scarlet fever on the 18th inst., and Dr. Weber, the family physician, was called. The druggist's son, in making out, the prescription given, ased two drachms of laudunum instead of the same amount of simple syrup. The child took, one dose of the medicine at three o'clock, and died within three hours. The Jury brought in a verdict that the deceased came to her death by "the administration of some medicine containing laudunum, contrary to the directions of Dr. Weber, on the 18th day of May, 1876, at No. 65 West Flitty-fixth street, and we further find that said medicine was compounded at the drug store of John Faber, corper of Sixth svenue and Fitty-flith street." John Faber and his son were both summoned as witnesses at the latter of the little girl intends to carry the matter before the courts, and possibly a ruit for damages will be the result. The pre-cription written by Dr. Weber was for bromide of soda, water and simple syrup. It was plainly written, and there seems to be he excuse for the mistake of the druggist's son. At the inquest Dr. Weber and Dr. Saunders, who attended the child, and her father, David L. Einstein, were examined, and all testined to the lasts in the case as already given. Deputy Coroner Goldschmidt's testimony, from the results of a post-mortem examination, confirmed what the other witnesses related. The druggist, Mr. Faber, had swide and saying that he intended to take him from the prescription counter.

An incident

INCIDENT OF THE POLICE . SLIPS.

On last Saturday night all the mombers of the police force were supplied with ships, and became reporters. An incident occurred in Jacob street that illustrates the value of Commissioner Ehrhardt s pet plan to increase the morale of the lorce.

Sergeant Kelly, Roundsman Murphy and the officer post met under a gasight about ten P. M., and hipping out their slips end pencia, began work. A essenger hurriedly approached and breathlessly ex-plaimed:—

"Hurry up, officers! A woman is being murdered at No. 17 Jacob street."
"Can't nelp it," said Sergoant Kelly, as he readjusted its spectables and continued writing, "They can dismiss us for not keeping up our slips, but they can't burt as for not preventing a morder!"

A moment later another citizen came up with the remark, "A woman is killed at No. 17—thrown out the window!"

nark, "A wollish is killed at reindow!"

"All right, my friend," said the faithful Kelly;
"All right, my friend," said the faithful Kelly;
"we'se doin, our duty; sorry she's killed; but the slips! the slips! You see how it is yourself; we must make our entries!" The three officers finished their matries and proceeded to investigate the case. The woman, Annie Wise, aged sixty five years, had accidenially failen from the third, floor of No. 17 Jacob itreet upon a shed, and was so severely injured that Soundaman Murphy sent her to the hospital. The bloter of the Fourth presuct contains the record, but no mention of Kelly's and Murphy's first experience as reporters.

STRANGE DISAPPEARANCE.

Six weeks ago a little boy named George Six wocks age a little boy named George Carli, cleven years of age, disappeared mysteriously from his mother's house on Middagh street, Brooklyn, and no trace has since been found of him. His mother has spent a considerable amount of money in the suderwor to find a clew to his whereabouts, and has visited Philadelphia, thinking he might have found his way to the Contennial, but all her efforts have proved fruntless, and she is now disconsolate. A suspicious circumstance in connection with the boy's disappearance is the fact that he was seen in company with a man named Ruius Dill the day he was missed from his home, and this man has also disappeared a coffee and cake saloon in thatham street of Dill. A letter addressed to Dill has been lying at the boarding house where he stopped, but no one will take the responsibility of opening it. It is thought that the contents of the letter might give sufficient information about the man's connections to afford a possible clew to the double disappearance.
